

Maximum Contribution Worksheet - 2025

Participant Contributions (Salary Reduction)

	Traditional Before-Tax	Roth After-Tax
Base Limit - $23,500	$ <input type="text"/>	$ <input type="text"/>
Over 50 Catch-up - $7,500 <small>(Catch-up amount is $11,250 if person attains age 60, 61, 62, or 63 in 2025)</small>	$ <input type="text"/>	$ <input type="text"/>
Participant's Total	$ <input type="text"/>	$ <input type="text"/>
Participant's GRAND Total <small>(Cannot Exceed $31,000 - or $34,750 if person attains age 60, 61, 62, or 63 in 2025)</small>		$ <input type="text"/>

Employer/Church Contributions

Contributions	$ <input type="text"/>
Employer's GRAND Total	$ <input type="text"/>

Combined Contributions

Participants UNDER Age 50 <small>(Cannot Exceed $70,000)</small>	$ <input type="text"/>
Participants OVER Age 50 <small>(Cannot Exceed $77,500 - or $81,250 if person attains age 60, 61, 62, or 63 in 2025)</small>	$ <input type="text"/>

* Any limit listed above is subject to your taxable compensation. Contributions may not exceed your taxable compensation - the amount that appears in Box 1 on the participant's W-2 form - thus excluding ministerial housing allowance.

 This worksheet may be used to provide guidance to maximize contributions to the Ministers' Retirement Plan (MRP). Before you make a decision concerning your MRP contribution limits, you should contact your tax advisor, accountant, or other financial professional.